Connecting through Storytime

Children's Hospital, in partnership with Children's Miracle Network and Readeo.com, is providing a unique and powerful way to stay connected with family and friends during your child's hospital stay.

Readeo combines video chat with digital children's books to create a storytime experience with young children over the Internet. During your stay in the hospital, you can use Readeo for free to read with your child in the hospital or to read to other children at home. Don't have a webcam? Enjoy reading the books directly from the site! Choose from over 55 books - with more on the way.

To enjoy your complimentary subscription, please use the coupon code provided below when you sign up at www.readeo.com.

Best Wishes,

Your Hospital, Children's Miracle Network & Team Readeo

Frequently Asked Questions

Does a child need parental or guardian permission to use Readeo?

Yes. A parent or guardian will need to set up the account at www.readeo.com/signup/vip using the coupon code on front of this flyer.

What do I need to use Readeo?

You just need to connect to the Internet on a computer with a webcam.

Does the person I am having a BookChat with need a Readeo account as well?

Yes, the other person can sign up for a free Guest account at www.readeo.com.

How do I set up a BookChat?

Once you and your family or friend have set up your Readeo accounts and are online, you'll be able to initiate a BookChat from your Profile page.

Can I use Readeo to read children's books on the website?

Yes, feel free to read the books directly from the site with or without starting a BookChat.

Does the coupon code expire?

Each coupon code is good for one month. However, we want to make sure you can enjoy Readeo throughout your entire hospital stay. If your stay is longer than one month, additional coupon codes can be obtained from your child life specialist to extend the membership. Once you leave the hospital and your membership expires, your account will convert to a Guest account. You can continue to use it as a Guest account or you can upgrade to a Member account to continue enjoying all of the benefits of Readeo. In either case, your friend list, bookshelves and other account information will remain intact.

What if I don't have a webcam?

You can choose from over 55 books and read directly from the site! You can read solo or have someone in-person read to you.

Who do I speak with when I have questions, suggestions, etc.?

Please contact your Child Life Specialist at extension 3107.
